

Beirut Airport Reviews

Beirut Airport also known as Beirut-Rafic Hariri International Airport (Arabic: مطار بيروت الدولي) (French: Aéroport International de Beyrouth-Rafic Hariri) (IATA: BEY, ICAO: OLBA), formerly Beirut International Airport, is located 9 kilometers (5.6 mi) from the city center in the southern suburbs of Beirut, Lebanon, and is the only operational commercial airport in the country.

The Beirut Airport has all of the typical airport passenger facilities including duty-free shops, cafes, restaurants, banks, a post office, prayer rooms and a tourist information center (managed by the Ministry of Tourism).

Beirut Airport has two lounges for premium passengers located on the mezzanine level above the Duty Free area in the departure area. A third lounge, which once existed solely for passengers of Saudia Airlines only, has since closed. The lounges currently operating are:
