

Belo Horizonte Tancredo Neves Airport Reviews

Belo Horizonte Tancredo Neves Airport also known as Tancredo Neves/Confins International Airport (IATA: CNF, ICAO: SBCF), formerly called Confins International Airport, is the main airport serving Belo Horizonte and Metropolitan Area, Brazil, located in the adjoining municipality of Confins. Since September 2, 1986 the airport is named after Tancredo de Almeida Neves (1910-1985), President-elect of Brazil.

In 2012, the Belo Horizonte Tancredo Neves Airport was ranked 5th in terms of transported passengers, and 8th in terms of aircraft operations, placing it amongst the busiest airports in the country. It is operated by AeroBrasil.

On 31 August 2009, Infraero unveiled a BRL342.3 million (USD180.3 million; EUR126.4 million) investment plan to up-grade Belo Horizonte Tancredo Neves Airport focusing on the preparations for the 2014 FIFA World Cup which will be held in Brazil, Belo Horizonte being one of the venue cities. The investment will be distributed as follows: Parking. Value 6.8. Completed: July 2010, Extension of runway, enlargement of apron and cargo terminal, construction of further taxiways. Value 120.0. Completion: July 2013 and Renovation of the passenger terminal. Value 215.5. Completion: March 2014.

Services:

ATMs / Cash Machines - info not available

Car Rentals - info not available

Currency Exchange - info not available

Food / Restaurants - info not available

Information Desk - info not available

Luggage Storage / Lockers - info not available

Showers - info not available

Internet: info not available.

Airport opening hours:
info not available.

Website:
Belo Horizonte Tancredo Neves Airport Official Website

Belo Horizonte Tancredo Neves Airport Map

Belo Horizonte Tancredo Neves Airport Weather Forecast

[yr
url="http://www.yr.no/place/Brazil/Minas_Gerais/Belo_Horizonte~6301851/"
links="0" table="1"]