

Brasilia Airport Reviews

Brasilia Airport also known as Brasília-Presidente Juscelino Kubitschek International Airport (IATA: BSB, ICAO: SBBR) is the airport serving Brasília, Brazil. Since April 22, 1999 the Brasilia Airport is named after Juscelino Kubitschek de Oliveira (1902-1976), the 21st President of Brazil.

In 2012, the Brasilia Airport was ranked fourth in terms of transported passengers, third in terms of aircraft operations, and fifth in terms of cargo handled in Brazil, placing it amongst the busiest airports in the country.

Some of Brasilia Airport facilities are shared with the Brasília Air Force Base of the Brazilian Air Force.

On 31 August 2009, Infraero unveiled a BRL514.8 million (USD306.06 million; EUR224.76 million) investment plan[15] to up-grade Brasilia Airport focusing on the preparations for the 2014 FIFA World Cup and the Summer Olympics in 2016 which will be held in Brazil, Brasília being one of the venue cities: Enlargement of apron and taxiways. Value 34.5. Completion: April 2011, Renovation of the existing passenger terminal. Value 22.5. Completion: November 2011, Enlargement of the passenger terminal. Value 439.0. Completion: April 2013 and Parking. Value 18.8. Completion: April 2014.

Services:

Currency Exchange - Landside. Hours: 9:00am - 9:00pm (Mon - Fri) and 10:00am - 4:00pm (Sat - Sun)

Banks & ATMs - Available

Car rentals - Available

Restaurants - only 1 or 2 food outlets remain open for 24 hours

Shopping - Available

Internet - WiFi is available at the Brasilia Airport for a fee.

Airport opening hours:

Open 24 hours

Website:

Brasilia Airport Official Website

Brasilia Airport Map

Brasilia Airport Weather Forecast

[yr

url="http://www.yr.no/place/Brazil/Distrito_Federal/Brasilia_International_Airport/" links="0" table="1"]